

Special to The Monitor

NEW EDINBURG LIBRARY IN THE WORKS

The Sekula family poses with Edinburg City Council members, city staff and other local elected officials March 1 at the groundbreaking ceremony for the new library, which will be named in honor of marine Dustin M. Sekula who lost his life in the war in Iraq. For more information on the Edinburg Chamber of Commerce or to become a member, call 383-4974.