

McAllen Nursing Wedding.

SOCIALIFE / McAllen

At McAllen Nursing Home on Hackberry a very special date was celebrated by two individuals who decided to join their lives in marriage. McAllen Nursing and Rehabilitation Center resident Rigoberto Salazar who is legally blind and an amputee married his long time love of fifteen years in a unique ceremony. Rigoberto Salazar and Leonor Quinones were married by Justice of Peace Jesse Morales in an endearing wedding. Mr. Hari Namboodiri, administrator for McAllen Nursing and Rehabilitation Center served as the best man along with Miriam Aguilar, Director of Activities serving as the Maid of Honor. At hand were Elected officials and Business leaders from around the Valley who witnessed this beautiful ceremony portrayed an emotional message of Hope, Faith, and Love.
